Reed in Partnership are experts at recruitment.

As part of the Reed Recruitment Group, we have an unrivalled 60+ years of experience meeting the needs of employers who need to find and train new staff.

Hire job-ready candidates in your area – quickly and easily. Expert support available for employers in a variety of different industries, business sizes and requirements.

We bring the quality and experience of the Reed brand– but fully-funded and free to you as everything we do is funded by the Government.

By working together, we can help you fill your vacancies and enable people in your area to change their lives for the better.

We have worked with over 25,000 employers from across the UK to help them find top talent.

“Without their wonderful applicants, we may have struggled to find enough qualified staff.”

We know the impact the Covid-19 pandemic has had on labour shortages and disruption to business. We are here to help.

Our recruitment specialists have access to a wide talent pool of thousands of candidates in your area who are keen to find a new opportunity.

We also provide training on key skills and transferrable skills to ensure people succeed once they join your company.

"The Reed in Partnership team were able to give us a constant source of local people. This supplemented our own recruitment with the benefit of being very time efficient (compared to our own recruitment) and more cost efficient (than using a recruitment agency)."

"I would highly recommend Reed in Partnership Recruitment Services in the Hospitality Sector. Our requirements were varied; from hiring an Assistant Manager to a Kitchen Porter.

They were relentless in finding me the person who would be the perfect fit.

They fully considered the different outlets and what they offered the customer - and matched the candidate that would have no problem fitting in immediately.

I was fortunate enough to employ an Assistant Manager, who is both conscientious and keen to learn every aspect of the business.

Soon after, I was delighted to find a Kitchen Porter, who is hard working and thorough.

It's safe to say that I am very impressed and I have recommended their services to other people, and I will continue to do so."
